1. A. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Discovery in this action is likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary or private information for which special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the Court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles.

B. GOOD CAUSE STATEMENT

This action may involve Rokoko’s confidential and proprietary information, including trade secrets, valuable research, development, commercial, and/or technical information for which special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other this action is necessary and warranted. Such confidential and proprietary materials and information consist of, among other things, confidential business information, information regarding confidential business practices, or other confidential research, development, or commercial information (including information implicating privacy rights of third parties), information otherwise generally unavailable to the public, or which may be privileged or otherwise protected from disclosure under state or federal statutes, court rules, case decisions, or common law. Accordingly, to expedite the flow of information, to facilitate the prompt resolution of disputes over confidentiality of discovery materials, to adequately protect information the parties are entitled to keep confidential, to ensure that the parties are permitted reasonable necessary uses of such material in preparation for and in the conduct of trial, to address their handling at the end of the litigation, and serve the ends of justice,

REED SMITH LLP

1 a protective order for such information is justified in this matter. It is the intent of the 2 parties that information will not be designated as confidential for tactical reasons and 3 that nothing be so designated without a good faith belief that it has been maintained in 4 a confidential, non-public manner, and there is good cause why it should not be part of 5 the public record of this case.

6
7 C. ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF PROCEDURE FOR FILING UNDER SEAL

8 The parties further acknowledge, as set forth in Section 12.3, below, that this 9 Stipulated Protective Order does not entitle them to file confidential information under 10 seal; Local Civil Rule 79-5 sets forth the procedures that must be followed and the 11 standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file 12 material under seal.

13 There is a strong presumption that the public has a right of access to judicial 14 proceedings and records in civil cases. In connection with non-dispositive motions, 15 good cause must be shown to support a filing under seal. See Kamakana v. City and 16 County of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172, 1176 (9th Cir. 2006); Phillips v. Gen. Motors
17 Corp., 307 F.3d 1206, 1210-11 (9th Cir. 2002); Makar-Welbon v. Sony Electrics, Inc., 18 187 F.R.D. 576, 577 (E.D. Wis. 1999) (even stipulated protective orders require good 19 cause showing), and a specific showing of good cause or compelling reasons with 20 proper evidentiary support and legal justification, must be made with respect to 21 Protected Material that a party seeks to file under seal. The parties' mere designation
22 of Disclosure or Discovery Material as CONFIDENTIAL does not—without the 23 submission of competent evidence by declaration, establishing that the material sought
24 to be filed under seal qualifies as confidential, privileged, or otherwise protectable—
25 constitute good cause.

26 Further, if a party requests sealing related to a dispositive motion or trial, then 27 compelling reasons, not only good cause, for the sealing must be shown, and the relief
28 sought shall be narrowly tailored to serve the specific interest to be protected. See

REED SMITH LLP

1 Pintos v. Pacific Creditors Ass’n, 605 F.3d 665, 677-79 (9th Cir. 2010). For each
2 item or type of information, document, or thing sought to be filed or introduced under 3 seal in connection with a dispositive motion or trial, the party seeking protection must 4 articulate compelling reasons, supported by specific facts and legal justification, for 5 the requested sealing order. Again, competent evidence supporting the application to 6 file documents under seal must be provided by declaration.

7 Any document that is not confidential, privileged, or otherwise protectable in its 8 entirety will not be filed under seal if the confidential portions can be redacted. If 9 documents can be redacted, then a redacted version for public viewing, omitting only 10 the confidential, privileged, or otherwise protectable portions of the document shall be 11 filed. Any application that seeks to file documents under seal in their entirety should 12 include an explanation of why redaction is not feasible.

13
14 2. DEFINITIONS

15 2.1 Action: this pending federal lawsuit.

16 2.2 Challenging Party: a Party or Non-Party that challenges the designation
17 of information or items under this Order.

18 2.3 “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items: information (regardless of 19 how it is generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things that qualify 20 for protection under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c), and as 21 specified above in the Good Cause Statement.

22 2.4 Counsel: Outside Counsel of Record and House Counsel (as well as their 23 support staff) or Plaintiff, appearing in pro per.

24
25 2.5 Designating Party: a Party or Non-Party that designates information or 26 items that it produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as 27 “CONFIDENTIAL.”
28

REED SMITH LLP

- 1           2.6    Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, regardless of 2                    the medium or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained
3                    (including, among other things, testimony, transcripts, and tangible 4                    things) that are produced or generated in disclosures or responses to 5                    discovery in this matter.

- 6           2.7    Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter
7                    pertinent to the litigation who has been retained by a Party, the party
8                    appearing pro se, or its counsel to serve as an expert witness or as a 9                    consultant in this Action.

- 10           2.8    House Counsel: attorneys who are employees of a party to this Action or 11                   are the party appearing pro se. House Counsel does not include Outside 12                   Counsel of Record or any other outside counsel.

- 13           2.9    Non-Party: any natural person, partnership, corporation, association or 14                   other legal entity not named as a Party to this action.

- 15           2.10   Outside Counsel of Record: attorneys who are not employees of a party
16                   to this Action but are retained to represent or advise a party to this Action
17                   and have appeared in this Action on behalf of that party or are affiliated 18                   with a law firm that has appeared on behalf of that party, and includes 19                   support staff.

- 20           2.11   Party: any party to this Action, including all of its officers, directors,
21                   employees, consultants, retained experts, and Outside Counsel of Record 22                   (and their support staffs).

- 23           2.12   Producing Party: a Party or Non-Party that produces Disclosure or 24                   Discovery Material in this Action.

- 26
- 27
- 28

1 2.13 Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation support
2 services (e.g., photocopying, videotaping, translating, preparing exhibits
3 or demonstrations, and organizing, storing, or retrieving data in any form
4 or medium) and their employees and subcontractors.

5 2.14 Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is 6 designated as “CONFIDENTIAL.”
7

8 2.15 Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material
9 from a Producing Party.

10 3. SCOPE

11 The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only 12 Protected Material (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted
13 from Protected Material; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of 14 Protected Material; and (3) any testimony, conversations, or presentations by Parties
15 or their Counsel that might reveal Protected Material.

16 Any use of Protected Material at trial shall be governed by the orders of the trial
17 judge. This Order does not govern the use of Protected Material at trial.
18

19 4. DURATION

20 Once a case proceeds to trial, information that was designated as 21 CONFIDENTIAL or maintained pursuant to this protective order used or introduced 22 as an exhibit at trial becomes public and will be presumptively available to all 23 members of the public, including the press, unless compelling reasons supported by 24 specific factual findings to proceed otherwise are made to the trial judge in advance of 25 the trial. See Kamakana, 447 F.3d at 1180-81 (distinguishing “good cause” showing
26 for sealing documents produced in discovery from “compelling reasons” standard
27
28

REED SMITH LLP

1 when merits-related documents are part of court record). Accordingly, the terms of 2 this protective order do not extend beyond the commencement of the trial.

3
4 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

5 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection.

6 Each Party or Non-Party that designates information or items for 7 protection under this Order must take care to limit any such designation
8 to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate standards. The 9 Designating Party must designate for protection only those parts of 10 material, documents, items or oral or written communications that qualify 11 so that other portions of the material, documents, items or 12 communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept 13 unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order.

14 Mass, indiscriminate or routinized designations are prohibited.

15 Designations that are shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been 16 made for an improper purpose (e.g., to unnecessarily encumber the case 17 development process or to impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on 18 other parties) may expose the Designating Party to sanctions.

19
20 If it comes to a Designating Party's attention that information or items 21 that it designated for protection do not qualify for protection, that 22 Designating Party must promptly notify all other Parties that it is 23 withdrawing the inapplicable designation.

24 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in 25 this Order (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as 26 otherwise stipulated or ordered, Disclosure or Discovery Material that 27
28

REED SMITH LLP

1           qualifies for protection under this Order must be clearly so designated
2           before the material is disclosed or produced.

3
4           Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

5           (a) for information in documentary form (e.g., paper or electronic 6           documents, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial
7           or trial proceedings), that the Producing Party affix at a minimum,
8           the legend “CONFIDENTIAL” (hereinafter “CONFIDENTIAL
9           legend”), to each page that contains protected material. If only a
10          portion of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the
11          Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s)
12          (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

13           A Party or Non-Party that makes original documents available for 14           inspection need not designate them for protection until after the 15           inspecting Party has indicated which documents it would like copied
16           and produced. During the inspection and before the designation, all 17           of the material made available for inspection shall be deemed 18           “CONFIDENTIAL.” After the inspecting Party has identified the 19           documents it wants copied and produced, the Producing Party must 20           determine which documents, or portions thereof, qualify for 21           protection under this Order. Then, before producing the specified
22           documents, the Producing Party must affix the “CONFIDENTIAL
23           legend” to each page that contains Protected Material. If only a
24           portion of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the
25           Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s)
26           (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

(b) for testimony given in depositions that the Designating Party identifies the Disclosure or Discovery Material on the record, before the close of the deposition all protected testimony.

(c) for information produced in some form other than documentary and for any other tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the container or containers in which the information is stored the legend “CONFIDENTIAL.” If only a portion or portions of the information warrants protection, the Producing Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s).

5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the Designating Party’s right to secure protection under this Order for such material. Upon timely correction of a designation, the Receiving Party must make reasonable efforts to assure that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any Party or Non-Party may challenge a designation of confidentiality at any time that is consistent with the Court’s Scheduling Order.

6.2 Meet and Confer. The Challenging Party shall initiate the dispute resolution process under Local Rule 37.1 et seq.

6.3 The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on the Designating Party. Frivolous challenges, and those made for an improper purpose

1 (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may
2 expose the Challenging Party to sanctions. Unless the Designating Party has waived 3 or withdrawn the confidentiality designation, all parties shall continue to afford the 4 material in question the level of protection to which it is entitled under the Producing
5 Party’s designation until the Court rules on the challenge.

6
7 7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

8 7.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is 9 disclosed or produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection
10 with this Action only for prosecuting, defending or attempting to settle 11 this Action. Such Protected Material may be disclosed only to the 12 categories of persons and under the conditions described in this Order.
13 When the Action has been terminated, a Receiving Party must comply
14 with the provisions of section 13 below (FINAL DISPOSITION).

15 Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at 16 a location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the 17 persons authorized under this Order.

18
19 7.2 Disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items. Unless 20 otherwise ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating
21 Party, a Receiving Party may disclose any information or item designated 22 “CONFIDENTIAL” only to:

23 (a) the Receiving Party’s Outside Counsel of Record in this Action, as 24 well as employees of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is 25 reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this Action;

(c) Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Action and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

(d) the court and its personnel;

(e) court reporters and their staff;

(f) professional jury or trial consultants, mock jurors, and Professional Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Action and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

(g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information;

(h) during their depositions, witnesses, and attorneys for witnesses, in the Action to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary provided: (1) the deposing party requests that the witness sign the form attached as Exhibit A hereto; and (2) they will not be permitted to keep any confidential information unless they sign the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed by the Designating Party or ordered by the court. Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected Material may be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this Stipulated Protective Order; and

(i) any mediator or settlement officer, and their supporting personnel, mutually agreed upon by any of the parties engaged in settlement discussions.

8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER LITIGATION

(a) If a Party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels disclosure of any information or items designated in this Action as “CONFIDENTIAL,” that Party must:

(i) promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such notification shall include a copy of the subpoena or court order;

(ii) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is subject to this Protective Order. Such notification shall include a copy of this Stipulated Protective Order; and

(iii) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by the Designating Party whose Protected Material may be affected.

(b) If the Designating Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party served with the subpoena or court order shall not produce any information designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL” before a determination by the court from which the subpoena or order issued, unless the Party has obtained the Designating Party’s permission. The Designating Party shall bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in that court of

1 its confidential material and nothing in these provisions should be
2 construed as authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this Action
3 to disobey a lawful directive from another court.

4 9. A NON-PARTY’S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE PRODUCED
5 IN THIS LITIGATION

6 (a) The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by a 7 Non-Party in this Action and designated as “CONFIDENTIAL.” Such 8 information produced by Non-Parties in connection with this litigation is 9 protected by the remedies and relief provided by this Order. Nothing in 10 these provisions should be construed as prohibiting a Non-Party from 11 seeking additional protections.

12
13 (b) In the event that a Party is required, by a valid discovery request, to 14 produce a Non-Party’s confidential information in its possession, and the 15 Party is subject to an agreement with the Non-Party not to produce the 16 Non-Party’s confidential information, then the Party shall:

17 (1) promptly notify in writing the Requesting Party and the Non-
18 Party that some or all of the information requested is subject to a
19 confidentiality agreement with a Non-Party;

20
21 (2) promptly provide the Non-Party with a copy of the Stipulated
22 Protective Order in this Action, the relevant discovery request(s),
23 and a reasonably specific description of the information requested; 24 and

25 (3) make the information requested available for inspection by the 26 Non-Party, if requested.
27
28

REED SMITH LLP

(c) If the Non-Party fails to seek a protective order from this court within 14 days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, the Receiving Party may produce the Non-Party’s confidential information responsive to the discovery request. If the Non-Party timely seeks a protective order, the Receiving Party shall not produce any information in its possession or control that is subject to the confidentiality agreement with the Non-Party before a determination by the court. Absent a court order to the contrary, the Non-Party shall bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in this court of its Protected Material.

10. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed Protected Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this Stipulated Protective Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing the Designating Party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the Protected Material, (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this Order, and (d) request such person or persons to execute the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

11. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED MATERIAL

When a Producing Party gives notice to Receiving Parties that certain inadvertently produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the Receiving Parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery order that provides for production without prior privilege review. 2 information covered by the attorney-client privilege or work product protection, the 3 parties may incorporate their agreement in the stipulated protective order submitted to 4 the court.

5 12. MISCELLANEOUS

6 12.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any 7 person to seek its modification by the Court in the future.
8

9 12.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this 10 Protective Order, no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to 11 disclosing or producing any information or item on any ground not addressed in this 12 Stipulated Protective Order. Similarly, no Party waives any right to object on any 13 ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered by this Protective Order.

14 12.3 Filing Protected Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any 15 Protected Material must comply with Local Civil Rule 79-5. Protected
16 Material may only be filed under seal pursuant to a court order
17 authorizing the sealing of the specific Protected Material at issue. If a 18 Party’s request to file Protected Material under seal is denied by the 19 court, then the Receiving Party may file the information in the public
20 record unless otherwise instructed by the court.

21 13. FINAL DISPOSITION

22 After the final disposition of this Action, as defined in paragraph 4, within 60
23 days of a written request by the Designating Party, each Receiving Party must return
24 all Protected Material to the Producing Party or destroy such material. As used in this 25 subdivision, “all Protected Material” includes all copies, abstracts, compilations,
26 summaries, and any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected
27 Material. Whether the Protected Material is returned or destroyed, the Receiving

1 Party must submit a written certification to the Producing Party (and, if not the same
2 person or entity, to the Designating Party) by the 60 day deadline that (1) identifies 3 (by category, where appropriate) all the Protected Material that was returned or 4 destroyed and (2) affirms that the Receiving Party has not retained any copies,
5 abstracts, compilations, summaries or any other format reproducing or capturing any 6 of the Protected Material. Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel or the party
7 appearing pro se, are entitled to retain an archival copy of all pleadings, motion
8 papers, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, legal memoranda, correspondence, 9 deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant and 10 expert work product, even if such materials contain Protected Material. Any such 11 archival copies that contain or constitute Protected Material remain subject to this 12 Protective Order as set forth in Section 4 (DURATION).

13 14. VIOLATION

14 Any violation of this Order may be punished by appropriate measures

HON. ROZELLA A. OLIVER

United States Magistrate Judge

EXHIBIT A

ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND AGREEMENT TO BE BOUND

I, _____ [print or type full name], of

declare under penalty of perjury that I have read in its entirety and understand the Stipulated Protective Order that was issued by the United States District Court for the Central District of California on [date] in the case of Matthew R. Walsh v. Rokoko Electronics, Case No. 2:25-cv-05340-ODW-RAO. I agree to comply with and to be bound by all the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order and I understand and acknowledge that failure to so comply could expose me to sanctions and punishment in the nature of contempt. I solemnly promise that I will not disclose in any manner any information or item that is subject to this Stipulated Protective Order to any person or entity except in strict compliance with the provisions of this Order.

I further agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Central District of California for enforcing the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order, even if such enforcement proceedings occur after termination of this action. I hereby appoint _____ [print or type full name] of _____ [print or type full address and telephone number] as my California agent for service of process in connection with this action or any proceedings related to enforcement of this Stipulated Protective Order.
